Investment Objective

The Fund investment objective is to provide the unit holder with capital growth, by investing mainly in large-cap companies in both developed and emerging markets. The Fund is actively managed relative to the Benchmark and its purpose is to provide investors with long-term capital growth.

Investment Strategy

The Fund invests mainly in large-cap companies in both developed and emerging markets which in the Management Company's view present attractive valuations or opportunities to increase profits or market shares in the sectors in which they operate. The Fund may also acquire equity securities through certificates of deposit (ADRs, GDRs). The Fund's investment policy does not follow specific geographical or sectoral restrictions. The selection of these stocks is based on a variety of criteria regarding the fundamentals of the selected company, the earnings growth prospects, the quality and effectiveness of management teams and market valuation.

Q1 Commentary

The first quarter of 2025 was marked by significant market volatility driven by economic, geopolitical, and policy shifts, particularly in the U.S. The Trump administration's tariffs—including 25% levies on Canada, Mexico, and China—along with broader reciprocal tariffs, sparked trade war fears and dampened investor confidence. The "Magnificent 7" faced pressure from emerging AI competition (e.g., China's DeepSeek model) and conservative corporate earnings guidance. The S&P 500 declined by 4.3% to 4.6%, marking its worst quarterly performance since Q3 2022. Non-U.S. markets fared better, with the MSCI EAFE Index rising 6.9%. U.S. GDP growth slowed, with estimates for Q1 ranging from 0.3% to -1.8%, down from 2.4%. Unemployment rose to 4.2%, though hiring remained solid. Inflation edged up to 2.8%, raising concerns over stagflation. The Fed held interest rates steady at 4.25%–4.5%, projecting two 25-basis-point cuts in 2025. China's GDP grew by 5.4%, although the effects of tariffs remained evident. Europe benefited from ECB rate cuts (to 2.5%), while Japan raised rates to 0.5%. Australia's RBA lowered rates to 4.1%. The TRITON Global Equity Fund posted a return of -12.80% in Q1 2025,

Investment risks

Risks from the Sub-Fund's techniques and securities

Market	Credit	Derivatives (Leverage)	Currency
The fund is subject to normal market fluctuations and the risks associated with investing in securities markets. The value of your investment and the income from it may be affected by general economic and political factors as well as industry or company specific factors.	Exchange rate fluctuations may negatively impact the value of investments designated in another currency. Adverse movements in currency exchange rates could result in a decrease in return and a loss of capital. It may not be possible to successfully hedge against the currency risk exposure in all circumstances.	The derivatives market introduces significant levels of complexity, increasing the probability of adverse gains or losses to the fund that holds derivatives. The higher sensitivity to price movements of the underlying asset can asymmetrically affect the price of a derivative that is linked to it.	Exchange rate fluctuations may negatively impact the value of investments designated in another currency. Adverse movements in currency exchange rates could result in a decrease in return and a loss of capital. It may not be possible to successfully hedge against the currency risk exposure in all circumstances.
